WHO WE ARE

In 1884 the first Beechmont Hotel was built by W. H. Turner to service the timber getters and bullock drivers working the Numinbah Valley. It was located on the corner of Numinbah Road and a bullocky track from Beechmont known as the Black Shoot. Over twenty years later in 1905, Ernest Bellis took over operations of the hotel.

A LITTLE HISTORY

In 1918 Ernest changed the hotel's name to the Advancetown Hotel and as a result, provided the name for the surrounding settlement. He sold the hotel in March 1924.

Under the new ownership of Mr A. E. Giles, in July 1933, a fire occurred while Mrs Free, the licensee was away. There was no firefighting equipment available for the timber building and the 11 room building was destroyed. Though no lives were lost, nothing was saved. Another hotel was built on the site and opened in February 1934. It was this hotel that was eventually covered by the waters of the Hinze Dam in 1977. A new Advancetown Hotel was established on higher ground closer to Nerang on the Nerang – Numinbah Valley Road.

Fast-forward to 2023 and The Beechmont Hotel is making a return. We offer a country inspired venue with live music, rodeo's and great pub food. We look forward to bring a little bit of the country to the coast.

We have a range of great spaces available for your next event. If you would like to discuss hosting your event at The Beechmont Hotel take a look through our functions pack and let us take care of the rest!
